

Planning For Symphony Concert

Last minute details for the North Carolina Symphony concert Thursday night at Western Piedmont Community College are being discussed on the Plaza where the concert will be held. The "Concert Under The Stars" will begin at 8:15 p.m. and will be open to the public with no admission charge. This is part of the local observance of Symphony Month in North Carolina. Left to right are Mrs. Bob Boyles, chairman of the social committee at the college; Dr. Richard K. Lindquist, president of the Burke County chapter of the N. C. Symphony Society; Mrs. Margaret Fulk, who is coordinating symphony activities at the college; Dr. Gordon Blank, president of WPCC; and Mrs. Robert J. Wilkins, membership chairman for the symphony drive which will be held May 22-26. Memberships for the 1972-73 symphony concert series may be purchased at the Thursday night concert. (Staff photo)