

Ms. Western Piedmont

A homemaker, mother of two and student was selected as the first Ms. Western Piedmont Community College Saturday night. Mrs. Eleanor Marxen of Morganton, a second-year nursing student, received a trophy and a $125 scholarship in addition to her title. She competed against 20 other WPCC coeds in the SGA-sponsored event. The reigning Ms. is married to Edward Marxen, an executive with Wachovia Bank in Morganton.
