

New building at WPCC

Western Piedmont Community College's new "H" building is 36 percent completed and should be finished by Jan. 22, 1980. Adjacent to "E" building, the facility will house criminal justice, fire science and dental labs, the nursing department and drafting classrooms. Wilkie Construction Co. of Lenoir is the general contractor. (Staff photo by Mark Phillips.)