

Sculptor at WPCC

Sculptor Dempsy Calhoun surveys one of his recently completed seven-foot tall forged metal creations on the lawn of Western Piedmont Community College. Calhoun has transported his works from Rockytown to participate in the visiting artist exhibit program being sponsored by WPCC and the Burke Arts Council this month. (Photo by Chuck Liddy)